MEDICINAL USES of the WILD CHERRY.—Ever since the settlement of America. Wild Cherry has been known to possess very important medicinal virtues. Everyleoly knew this fact, but nobody knew how to extract its essential properties. Every mother gives Wild Cherry Tea to her children for Worms, for Colds, and for almost every disease; and sdults throughout our country are in the habit of making a compound of syrup of Wild Cherry bark and other ingredients, to be used in spring as an antisiote to complaints incident to that changeful season.
It is found by experiment that the Wild Cherry possesses even far more important qualities than was astribed to it.
For the first stage of Consumption, Asthma, no matter how long standing, Coughs, Liver Complaints, &c., it is proved to be the best medicine known to man. Dr. Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry is a chemical extract, combined with a PROFESSOR MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXIR: or, CORDIAL.

THE WONDERFUL VEGETABLE PRODUCTION of which this medicine is composed, has engaged the medical savans of London, Paris, and the chief cities of Europe.
Its virtue has been tested, and proclaimed by the highest names in the Faculty of those cities, and testimonials have been presented to is discoverer by the Academies of Modicine of London, Edinburgh, Paris, Berlin and Vicena. The finne of Professor Morse is too well known in the Scientific World to require any enlogy here. No man has done more to advance the useful and beautiful science to which his life has been devoted, than he has done. He has made the circuit of the world in prosecuting his researches in the vegetable kinedom; the botanical productions of the frozen regions of the North, the wonderful plants and herbs of the East, and of the great Southern Continent of Australia, with its adjacest Islands, are able familiar to him. He has introduced new resources in the Medical Art, and probably done more to promote the health and increase the happiness of mankind than any other living man. During a sojourn in Arabia Petrea, Professor Morse was afflicted with a nervous fever, brought on by intense excitement and imprindent exertions in a torrid season of the year, which defied his own knowledge of curative means, and for some time threatened a fatal termination. A Shiek of one of the native tribes at length induced him to take a medicine prepared from the roots of herbs common to a mountainous region of the country, which in a few days not only restored him to visorous health, but renewed the strength of his constitution in a marvellous degree.

This herb has, from time inancurorial, been held almost PROFESSOR MORSE'S INVIGORAT-

This both has, from time immemorial, been held almost in veneration by the natives, for its life-ronewing qualities. It is regarded by them as the great specific provided by nature against all diseases, both as a preventive and care, and their constant use of it accounts for their freedom from disease, and the extraordinary longevity to which they attain. Professor Morse's first care, on his recovery, was to procure a quantity of the berb and its roots, which he forwarded to the chief physician of Guy's Hospital, London, with an ascount of its wonderful properties. The recommendation of a botania's od distinguisted, was sufficient to induce the physician to give the medicine a prompt trial, and its effects in case of nervous afflictions the most hopeless, were so miraculous, that the physician immediately proclaimed a new discovery in medicine, which, for the future, would render one half of the drugs in the Pharmacopses unnecessary. Other parcels of the herb were also ent to the Colleges of Edinburgh and Paris, where they were used with the same astonialing results, and the physicians of those establishments added their testimony to that of their London cotemporary.

astonishing results, and the physicians of those establishments added their testimenty to that of their London cotemporary.

Is one of the principal ingredients used in making this CORDLAL. It is obtained at great expense by the Proprietor and Manufacturer, Mr. Moree, M. D., New-York city. It is the only infallible remedy yet discovered for Nervous, Head and Mind Complaints: it is the mental physic, long sought for, and never before found, the only infallible remedy yet discovered for Nervous, Head and Mind Complaints: it is the mental physic, long sought for, and never before found, the only infallible remedy yet discovered for Nervous, Head and Mind Complaints: it is the mental physic, long sought for, and never before found, the nelvous of heads and the various train of Nervous Affections, it will produce a cure in an astonishing short period of time: and it will also comove Depression. Excitement, a Tendency to Blush, Reselvssness, Sleeplessness, Dielike of Society, Incapacity for Study or Business, Loss of Memory, Confusion, Giddiness, Blood to the Head, Melancholy, Mental Debility, Hysteria, Indecision, Wretchedness, Thoughts of Self-Destruction, Fear of Insanity, &c. It will increase and restore the appetite, strengthen the emaciated, renew the leasth of those who have destroyed it, induce continual cheerfulness and equaniumly of spirits, and prolong life.

Persons of pale complexion or consumptive labits are restored by the use of a bottle or two to stonast and vinon, changing the skin from a pale yellow, sickly color to a beautiful TLONID COMPLEXION.

Mark the misery that never fails to punish the violator of nature's laws—function after function gives way under this delucion. Palpitation of the Heart, periodical Healaches, cold and shivered state of the fixee on the sightest occasion, a desire that existence should terminate; the stonasch is put out of order, the appetite becomes capricious, a train of youthful dyseptics sets in, such as halalency, consupsation, &c., producing might-sweats, heaviness up of cheap drugs, worth but note in money, and note in merit.

We assure the reader that the utmost reliance may be piaced in this Cordial in the cure of the maiadies mentioned above, and also of those which follows, viz: Loss of Muscular Energy, General Prostration, Irritability, and all Nervous Affections, Indigestion, Suggishness of the Laver, &c. Under its influence the most dangerous Cough is removed, spitting of blood is prevented, the breathing is rendered soft and easy, and the sufferer is soon restored from the awful condition of Consumption to a healthy and comfortable existence.

There is no other reliable remedy, or any that has authentically received the sanction of the Medical Faculty.

DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL Has and is constantly Curing the Complaints, relieving the mental and bodily incapacity of the unfortunate sufferer, as the theusand certificates received will show.

Some "Patent Medicine Men." who are envious of the immense success of Dr. Merse's Invigorating Cordial have said that he published fictitious algorithms. Dr. Morse will pay any of those men $1,000 for each fictitious certificate they can produce.

NO MERCURY OR OPIUM—SOLEMN OATH.
Dr. Merse having recently heard that some Physicians and several Druggists have asserted that his Cordial contained Mercury and Opium, has made the following affidavite-whether these Physicians and Druggists supposed it contained Mercury or Opium, from the singular energy with which it acts upon particular diseases, or from its great power in relieving pain, or out of envy, he known not:
Stote of New-Vork, City and Gwasty of New-Vork, as—On this leth of June, A. D., eighteen hundred and forty-six, personally appeared before me, Andrew H. Mickle, Mayor of the City of New-Vork, Metcalf Morse, who by me being duly sworn, doth depose and say, that there is no Corrosive Sultimate or other Mercurial preparation used in compounding and manufacturing, or is contained in the medicine known by the name of Dr. Morse's Invigorating Eintir or Cordial, and that it does not contain a particle of Opium.

QUACKS.

There are a class of men who advertise "No Cure no Pay"—"Advice Free," kc., pretending that they are require physicians. They should be avoided. They ask no pay for advice, but cherge extravagantly for the mostrams which they invariably urge you to purchase—some of the various kinds with which their shops are filled. These felicies are general sharks. It is cheaper and tar better to get the advice of a physician in good standing. Some of the quacks style theirselves great Companies, kc., and put down a dozen different descriptions of cure alls, which, if they could believe them, would raise the dead. They are great humbugs. QUACKS.

PILLS, vs. COMMON SENSE.

People use less common sense in naing medicine than upon any other subject. Thousands of lives are annually sacrificed and constitutions ruined by the use of physic. They undertake to restore weakly and deblitated children and sick persons, reducing their strength by constantly giving them Pills, Pills, Pills. Many ack persons cat an amount of Pills sufficient to kill an ex. The constant use of pythse is as foolish as it is to attempt to onre eruptions of the skin and disease by driving them in with olintunet and salves. A dose or two of Pills, indictionally taken once or twice a year, are sometimes useful as Ointment in cases of Burns and Cuts. They who attempt to strengthen the system by the use of Physic, or cure disease by ontiments, are fools.

CURE ALLS.

There are medicines advertised, sold and recommended to cure all diseases, no matter how opposite or dissumilar a nature the diseases may be, the medicine will cure you. This is not so! Every one knows a medicine that will cure You. This is not so! Every one knows a medicine that will cure You. Rheamatism, will not Consumption—or what will cure Dysentery will not Neuraigia. But there are a certain class of diseases araing from the same canae, that a number of medicines properly compounded, or even a single medicine of extraordinary virtues, will remove. For example: Diseases that are brought on by say excessive or unnatural drain on the Vital or Nervous Phulas, or the over-taxing or derangement of the Nervous System, by close mental application, or from whatever cause produced, bringing with them a long train of herrous symptoms, and cansing, in a short time, affections of the head and mind bordering on inamity.—This state of the system, the Compount, bearing the name of Dr. MORSE'S lovigorating Cordial, will releve, and in a short time restore the system and all the organs to their natural bealth and vigor.

HOW PREPARED.

The manner of preparing a medicine is a most important conferration, for, unless this is done properly, the remedy is wholly inert and worse than useless, for instead of removing the disease as you expect, it still retains a hold on the system, becoming stronger and more difficult of removal, until the system becomes habituated to it, as it were a second nature. Very low heat should be employed in obtaining an extract, otherwise the volatile materials will be dissipated, and some of the parts documposed, altering, or even destroying it. The manner of preparing this Cordial is such as to render the extraction and the retention of all the medicinal virtues of the plant, and concentrating them to desirable extract, for properly regulating the dose, and at the same time rendering it palatable and acceptable to the stomach.

THE COMMON EXPRESSION of those who have used this Extract is: "I had heard your Cordial highly spoken of, but was one of the incredulous in regard to its merits—having tried various medicines sold for the same purpose (different Sarsaparilias) without deriving any benefit. I had almost given up all hopes of deriving any relief, and when I purchased some of your Cordial, I had no faith whatever of its benefiting me; but it has—I feel stronger, have although "its not three weeks. I am satisfied the half a deren bottles I took will curs me."

Another says: "I had consulted several distinguished physicians. Some said I could not be curred—others prescribed this thing and that, but I found no relief until I procured some of your Cordial. I must say it completely cured me."

Another says: "I was surprised at the effect your Cor-

Another says: "I was surprised at the effect your Cor-dial had. Why did I not hear of it before? It would have saved me much expense, besides years of mental and bodily suffering."

TESTIMONIALS.

No newspaper would hold the many certificates and testionics of gratifude to the Proprietor were we at liberty to shills them.

LET FACTS SPEAK FOR THEMSELVES.

Hear what the celebrated and distinguished Da. Woodward, of the Massachusetts Insue Hospital says of it:

Mass. INFARE HOSTITAL, WORCESTER, June I. 1843.

DEAR SEE—It gives me pleasure to inform you that one of my patients while in Boston, procured some of your Cerdial which he tells me the has taken two weeks, and that he is entirely cured. He already looks like a new person who so short a time since looked so pale and thin, and wascarcely able to crawl around. I thought it scarcely passable for him ever to regain his full strength and faculities; his case was an extremely bad one. I prescribed the usual medicine used in such cases in the Hospital, but they were of no effect. In the mean time my patient had procured some of your Cordial, which effected a cure, I am satisfied no other medicine could have done. I shall ever warmly recommend it whenever an opportunity occurs. The inventor in my younger days I well remember, as being considered one of the most skillful playsicians in the United States, and had heard his Cordial very highly spoken of, but was one of the medical statistical to two to think what a vast amount of human misery your Cordial is elleviating. With my warmest wishes for your health, happiness and continued successification. I have been a consolation to you to think what a vast amount of human misery your Cordial is elleviating. With my warmest wishes for your health, happiness and continued success.

DR. Monsz.—Sir: Sometime since you re-quested my opinion of the virtues or your Invigorating Cordial. I am now prepared to give it. I have had it in practice and preacribed it for the last few months, and must give it my decided preference over anything of the kind with which I am acquainted, both as to its medicinal virtues and reasonable prices which you sell it. I am much pleased with its effects, and can with confidence recommend it to the patronage of the profession as a valuable auxiliary for removing diseases is some of the most troublesome forms, and to all as a safe and valuable medicine.

Clergymen as well as physicians, and thousands of others in all parts of the United States, are continually sending certificates, informing us of the benjefts derived from using Dr. Morse's Coroial. We can publish only a few. The following is a specimen?

REV. JOHN SEGER.

Of Jersey City, an old and highly respectable gentleman, of the Baptist persussion, handed in the following certificate at Dr. Morse's office. It speaks for itself:

DR Morse—Dear Sir. I am constrained to give you a statement of the benefit I derived from using your Cordial, believing, by so doing. I shall render a benefit to those who are suffering as I have been.

I was afflicted for many months with pains in the head and dimners of sight, together with great nervous debility, so much that it was with much difficulty for me to walk or keep about. My digestive organs, also, were much deranged. I used quite a number of remedies, but received hittle or no benefit, until I took your Cordial, which, through the kindress of Providence, has restored me to more than my small health, as I am now enjoying better health than I have done for a number of years. I am now folyers of age. I believe it to be an invaluable medicine, which I recommend to my numerous acquaintance, and they are very large, as I have been a minister a great many years. I hope this hasty sketch may be as much benefit to you as the medicine has to me.

METHODIST CLERGYMAN.

The following was sent to our Agent in Rahway by Rev. O. Tunison, of the Methodist Episcopal Church—one of the most learned and respected in the connection—and is another proof of the wonderful effect of Dr. Morse's Invigurating Cordial oracle system.

FRIEND ROBINSON: Having for some years past, as you are aware, experienced great General Debility of my system, attended with constant and slarning Irritation of the Throat and Lunga. I was at your instince, and in consequence of having read Capt. McLean's decided teatimony in its behalf, induced to try Dr. Morse's far-famed Elizir. I tried it, I confess, more in the hope than in the confidence of its proving efficacious; but, I am bound in candor to acknowledge that I had not tried it long before I began to experience its salmary effects; and I may now say with Capt. McLean, "that I would not now be without it on any consideration." It has done me more good than any previous remedy I have tried, and if this statement is deemed by you of any importance, you may have my full consent to make it public.

Dr. Morse—Dear Sir: I have been severely afflicted for a length of time with great Physical Debility and Prostration of the whole Nervons System. At times I have faillen in the street by attacks of Diranees in the Head, accompanied by Singing in the Ears. I also suffered with Dyspepsia, Sickness at the Stomach, and Sensations of Weakness. Heard that your Cordial was particularly adapted for such complaints, and procured a bottle, and to my attorishment and surprise before I had used the bottle, I was like another man; indeed, one half dozen bottles cured moentirely. I have never been so surprised at any result in my life. I consider your Cordial's great blessing, and will extend its use as far as lays in my power. We invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Dr. Morse's Invigorating Cordial in another colons of this paper. We have heard it recommended by some our most celebrated Physicians, as the best remedy sold those complaints it is advertised to cure, and we have many cases ourselves of Debility that it has completely cured, and think it a valuable preparation, and we tay of the name it bears.

The success of Dr. Morse's Invigorating Cordial, appear to be of the most extraordinary character. We publish a day two certificates in its behalf, one from Toomas Lloys No. 32 Prince-st., of this city, and one from Rev. M. White, of Lyon. Mr. Lloydbelieves the medicine to have saved his life, and Mr. White seems to entertain an equally strong confidence in its efficacy.
